

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact

Sloane Whiteley
asapm® Young Crew
832-813-2017
vp-marketing@young-crew.org

PRESS RELEASE

asapm® Young Crew Congratulates our President Jhaymee Wilson for being listed as a 2009 Technology Rising Star in Women of Color Magazine!

Fairfax, VA - October 13, 2009: The American Society for the Advancement of Project Management (asapm®) Young Crew is excited to announce that our President, Jhaymee Wilson, has been listed as a 2009 Technology Rising Star in Women of Color magazine. For additional information about this major accomplishment, please refer to the following URL and skip to pages 58-59:

http://content.yudu.com/Library/A1h7q7/2009WomenofColorinTe/resources/index.htm?referrerUrl=http://www.yudu.com/item/details/92773/2009-Women-of-Color-in-Technolgy-STEM-Conference-magazine?edit_mode%3Don

2009

Rising Stars

A rising star is first sighted as it appears above the horizon. The women being honored by Career Communications Group are rising as leaders of tomorrow as they demonstrate their perseverance, creativity, and skill. They may still be early-career professionals, but these women, who excel in science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and business, have stepped forward as America's future.

| | | | |
|--|---|--|---|
| Kenya Martin Program Manager Air Force Research Laboratory Munitions Directorate | Kenya Savage Associate Boaz Allen-Hawthorn Jhaymee Wilson Project Manager CAC International | Irene Ding Executive Administrator CSC | Ericka Myers Project Manager CSC |
| Shava Meadows Deputy System Manager for Micro Munitions Air Force Research Laboratory Munitions Directorate | Tykesha Reed Help Desk Analyst Coppin State University | Anubha Gautam Associate Software Engineer CSC | Lakshmi Ramani Project Manager CSC |
| | | Andrea Gibson Manager SLA Monitoring Team CSC | Parul Sareen Senior Engineer CSC |

This is a major accomplishment for Jhaymee and everyone in our organization is very proud of her! Keep up the great work Jhaymee... you are a great role-model for our organization.....

Please send your congratulations to Jhaymee via email to YoungCrew@asapm.org.

About the asapm® Young Crew

The American Society for the Advancement of Project Management (asapm®) Young Crew is a non-profit professional association designed to provide experiential learning and best practice forums for young project managers across the United States. The primary mission of the asapm® Young Crew is to “develop young project managers for today and of tomorrow through the advancement of project management principles and promotion of innovation and cutting-edge research in the field.” For more information, visit www.yc-usa.org or email YoungCrew@asapm.org.